Topic sentence:

In my point of view, I agree with celebrating Thanksgiving day, as it holds significance both religiously and fosters positive relationships within families and communities. For three reasons that make Thanksgiving interesting.

Reasons & supporting details:

The first reason is to remember the God who helped America's immigrants survive. Including other countries that have similar celebrations. Thanking those who are gracious to us This belief makes people know how to be grateful for things that benefit us and the citizens of society.

The second reason is to stimulate the economy by bringing local food to celebrate, which has been a good opportunity to make people aware of the richness of local produce and has also built morale for workers. This is something that should be done to support your community.

The last reason is to bring joy to people. It is a time for families have gather around tables adorned with delicious feasts, talking, and creating lasting memories during this festive occasion. Additionally, In the city, there are also celebrations held in fun public spaces. That means everyone will be made happy by Thanksgiving.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, we should preserve this important day to encourage the general public to know how to be thankful and create happiness for everyone.
