

Worksheet 1:

Task 1: Identity and Me

Phase 1: My Written Personal Profile and Identity (8 points)

Instruction:

1. Set up your favorite role or perspective identity, such as a dream job or a position/ skills/ interest you will have.
2. Write your personal profile and identity about personal life changes, life events, jobs, and future plans adapting the lessons learned from Units 3 and 4 at 100-150 words. Use the writing template below to write it in your own words.
3. Highlight the focused grammar and structures, and vocabulary and expressions used from Units 3 and 4.
4. Submit your personal profile and identity with the number of counted words.

Writing template: (Word count: 128 words)

My Profile 	My name is Paphawarin Suchantabut. Now I am a second-year undergraduate student in the Department of Computer and Information Science, Faculty of Applied Science, at King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok.
Identity &amp; Personal life changes 	I would describe my identity as an amateur photographer because I am a person who likes to take pictures and keep them as memories. I know that my identity has been shaped by many aspects of my life changes. One of the coming-of-age traditions/events affecting my life is becoming a member of the photo club. How did it affect me? I must have more responsibility than I did when I was a child, planning my time for both school and club work. Although I understand that changes are normal, the biggest change that may happen and affect my future is that enrolling in college is appropriate for me. For people in the next generation, a lot of changes these days might cause a new trend. I predict the important trend for them is that have a salary to start a family.
Life events 	For my memorable life events, I remember that my best childhood memory is that I have ever gone away for the weekend with my family. In my adolescence, the life event that made me happy was that I have dyed my hair. I always feel proud when I think of the event that I haven't gotten a grade F yet. In my upcoming future, the most special life event that I would like to celebrate is passing a driving test, because I'm bored of staying at home and I want to go on a trip with friends, but traveling is difficult if we use public transportation.
Dream job and future plans 	As I mentioned earlier about my life changes and life events, my dream job is a programmer. I have always been an introverted person. I believe this will suit me. I also enjoy coding. I want to improve my communication skills by daring to talk with strangers. My dream job will allow me to make a positive impact on agencies and users. After graduating from university, I will plan on having various future goals. My first goal is going to be employed. My next future goal is going to move out of Thailand. My final future goal is going to spend my retirement with my dog. I think my life will be different in ten years. I plan to get married.